

Fleet Hero Conference 2016

Thursday 24 November 2016 (1.00–5.30pm)
London Transport Museum, Covent Garden

#fleetheroes

This year the Energy Saving Trust celebrates the 11th year of Fleet Heroes. The afternoon conference brings together fleet and associated industry professionals to discuss clean vehicles and how they can contribute to ensuring clean cities with healthy air quality for all.

The event will be chaired by Tim Anderson, Senior Knowledge Manager, Transport, Energy Saving Trust.

1.00pm Networking lunch

2.00pm Welcome and introduction

Andrew Benfield, Group Director Transport, Energy Saving Trust

2.10pm Keynote presentation: Air quality

Catriona Henderson, Deputy Head, Joint Air Quality Unit, Defra/DfT

2.30pm Discussion 1: Clean vehicles

Stephen Chater, Product and Market Planning, BMW

Paul Marchment, SME Development Manager, Arval

Phil Eaves, Supply Chain Director, Farm Drop

Panel discussion with Oliver Chadwick, Consumer Incentives, OLEV

3.40pm Coffee break

4.00pm Discussion 2: Clean cities

Ross Midgley, National Strategic Account Manager, Enterprise Rent-A-Car

Toby Poston, Director of Communications and External Relations, BVRLA

Dianne Armstrong, Senior Procurement Manager – Utilities, Heathrow Airport

Panel discussion with Catriona Henderson, Joint Air Quality Unit, Defra/DfT

5.20pm Summary

Andrew Benfield, Group Director Transport, Energy Saving Trust

5.30pm Close

The Fleet Hero Awards start from 6.45pm in the main gallery of the London Transport Museum